

MORNING APPEAL.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON
OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.

ALMOST A DEATH.

Last week the community was shocked to learn that a lady in this city had a very narrow escape from death by reason of a morphine prescription having been wrongly put up by Mr. Chedic, a druggist of this city.

The APPEAL has refrained from commenting on this case until it could positively ascertain the facts.

Mr. Chedic keeps a regular drug store, but not being a professional chemist and druggist, hires a competent clerk to put up the prescriptions. The clerk met with an accident to his eye and went away for treatment. While he was away Mr. Chedic attended to the business himself, and gave a little girl some morphine, who applied for it for her sister, a married lady. He gave her five powders, of three grains each.

The APPEAL is informed by several physicians in this city that one-eighth of a grain is the usual dose, and one-fourth of a grain the maximum dose for an adult.

A three-grain dose would be twelve times the maximum dose which is considered safe for an adult. The fact of its being so large alone saved the lady's life.

These are the case, as near as we have been able to gather them. A very grave responsibility rests on the vendors of drugs, as the variation of a fractional part of a grain may at any time wipe out a human life.

If Mr. Chedic cannot trust himself with the business he should cease to sell poisons until he has secured the services of a competent drug clerk. It is asking too much of the community to have it take chances of that sort.

VROOMAN WIPED OUT.

On Saturday last Henry Vrooman and W. E. Dargie contested the Republican primaries in Oakland.

Dargie is a young newspaper man with not much of a political record, while Vrooman is an old stager in politics, whose record is so well known that it smells worse than a decomposed polecat wherever he has camped.

Vrooman has represented Alameda county before in the Senate, and it is proven beyond a doubt that he accepted bribes and retainers from three different sources while in the Senate on one bill, and sold out two of the parties who had bought him.

People of this Coast are getting rather accustomed to dishonest politicians, but a man who is such a prime rascal as Vrooman is too much for them to stomach, and he was swept out of sight on Saturday. It was not his affiliations with the Southern Pacific R. R. that beat him, but the exposure of the man's unqualified rottenness which oozed out of every pore.

The Lion has Some Fun.
The other day John Bull heard a strange noise in the rear of his house, and going out found the British Lion laughing fit to kill himself.

He found on investigation that the tail of the lion was being tickled by Grover Cleveland, but not pulled to hurt.

The Lion enjoyed it immensely, and when Grover let go he pushed it through the bars where he could catch it handier.

The Lion said it was great fun, and not at all like the way James G. Blaine used to twist it.

The Democratic party is loud in its professions of being a great friend of labor. This is the same crowd who went to war in order to battle for the right to hire four millions of laborers in the South, whom they compelled to work under the lash for their board and clothes—poor board and hardly any clothes.

A TOUCHING SCENE.

The Evangelist's Service at the State Prison.

Last Sunday the services at the prison were conducted by Mrs. Wheatson the evangelist.

The lady, has been several days in the city and her face which has charmed everybody on the streets was a welcome sight to the prisoners as it beamed through the bars on Sunday afternoon.

The lady, who is a religious enthusiast, made an appeal to the prisoners which for earnestness they probably never heard equaled.

Her face even in her old age is sweet and beautiful and as she spoke the tears coursed down her cheeks.

When she began her address over an hundred faces were turned to hers, but as she talked to the prisoners and drew a touching picture of their childhood days, the evening prayers by their mother's knee and the cheery fireside which they left when they went out into the world, these faces speedily disappeared and every head was bowed down as far out of sight as possible.

Suddenly she stopped and sang: "Jesus lover of my soul let me to thy bosom fly."

Her voice is a very remarkable one, very strong and rich at times and as mellow as an organ.

The prisoner's voices gradually melted into the strain until they all joined in the familiar hymn and above the combined strength of more than a hundred throats the sweet notes of the woman's voice floated as clear as the stroke of a bell sounding over the hoarse shouts of a crowd.

When the hymn was finished every prisoner before her cried like a child.

When the service is ended there is always a rush for the flowers which lie on the table, but on this occasion when she finished her prayer every man sat mute and motionless and for several moments there was a deathlike stillness everywhere.

Then she walked behind the iron gate and went down among the men shaking hands in turn with all, speaking some kind word of encouragement to each.

The prisoners cried, the spectators cried with them and even the guards, accustomed to singular scenes joined in with the rest.

Those who witnessed the scene say that they will not forget it in a life time.
